

Rawsome

HEALTHY GUILTLESS CRAVINGS

OVERVIEW

Rawsome started in 2015 by selling only chia puddings, penetrating the health scene by being a pioneer introducing this superfood that has great health benefits to consumers. With a very small location concentrating only on deliveries, after a year in the market, we moved to a location where we had a small central kitchen to cater the growing demand

Realising the potential trend and growth of the healthy market, we introduced healthy wholesome meals as well as juices and smoothies to complete the brand image.

Now Rawsome is a homegrown brand targeted for those who wants to make positive changes in their lifestyle and habits.

WHY RAW SOME

We are a home grown brand that is dedicated to bringing you quality healthy food options for your events, meetings and even workshops.

By obtaining the product halal status, Rawsome is now confident to enter and penetrate all forms on industry platforms in the market.
